

Thank you for your interest in using our Targeted Universalism image.

If you share your contact information and how you are using it, in return we grant you permission to:

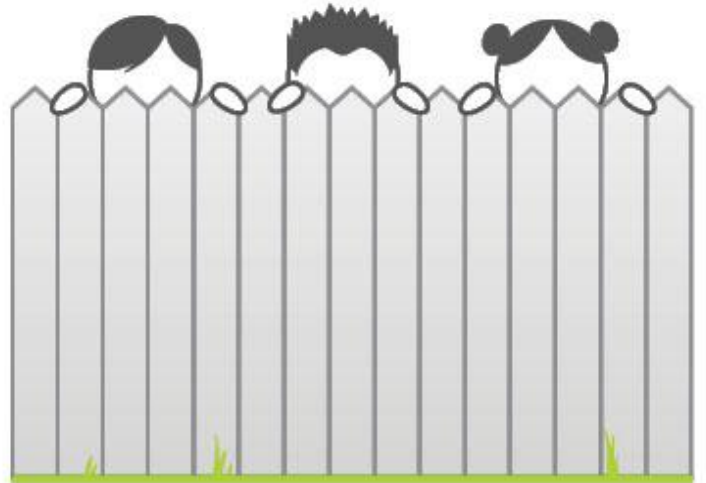

- Edit the original shown to your right, maintaining our trademark of the image itself and adding additional agency specific language.
- Use the image as is shown to your right for other agency's communication, maintaining our trademark.
- Regardless, the image itself cannot be altered, but text can be added or the image can be inserted into existing documents/websites/presentations, etc.

Click here to submit your contact information, design and description of use.

Click here to download this image without the text.

Targeted Universalism & Structural Fairness

Family Futures provides universal programs designed to meet a common goal – building strong and safe families. To ensure we practice equity and inclusion in our services, we target our approach to meet the needs of the population we serve, recognizing that not all families come from the same place in life.

TM 2014 Targeted Universalism Image designed by Family Futures

TM